John Guercio Reacts to Increase in the Reward to Catch Danielle Cretacci's Murderer

Tonawanda, New York, October 4, 2019 – John Guercio of Tonawanda, New York, is the homeowner of the residence that was the scene of the brutal murder of Danielle Cretacci and the shooting of her two children in August 2019. This afternoon, Tonawanda Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced an increase to the reward available for information leading to an arrest of the murderer of Cretacci.

Guercio's attorney, Robert C. Singer, Esq., of Singer Legal PLLC, stated in response to this announcement, "John and I continue to cooperate with authorities. We know that Tonawanda Detectives are working hard to solve this crime. We pray that the FBI's commitment to increase the award for information to $25,000 leads to someone with information to come forward. The monster who murdered Danielle and shot her children needs to be captured and punished."
